Article II Membership

Section 2. Commercial and Residential Brokerage Divisions: Membership in the Commercial and Residential Brokerage Divisions shall be divided into classes as follows:

(a) Broker A: Any individual who holds a license as a real estate broker pursuant to New York Real Property Law Article 12-A whose principal business is Real Estate Broker, Mortgage Loan Broker, Agent or Auctioneer, either in his own name or as a member of a partnership or an officer of a corporation, shall be eligible only for Broker A Membership or for Broker B Membership. It shall be the duty of every Broker A Member to impose as a condition of employment of any broker, associate broker, salesperson or manager employed by him, his copartnership or corporation that such employee, if qualified, shall apply for admission as a Broker B, Broker C, Salesperson, Management B, Management C or Management D, whichever such membership class is appropriate, and that if admitted such employee shall pay the dues required for such class of Member and the said Broker A Member shall be responsible for the payment of the dues of such employee.

(b) Broker B: Any member of a partnership or Senior Officer of a corporation in which there are one or more Broker A Members of the Board may, if a individual qualified under New York Real Property Law Article 12-A holds a Real Estate Brokerage license and is a Real Estate Broker, Mortgage Loan Broker, Agent Auctioneer, be eligible for Broker B Membership without initiation fee; and if elected shall, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, remain in such class so long as he shall continue to be a member of such partnership or Senior Officer in such corporation. In the event that such Broker B Member shall sever his relationship with such partnership or such corporation and become a member of another partnership or a Senior Officer of another corporation to which he desires to be transferred, his membership shall be transferred without the payment of an initiation fee, provided there shall be one more Broker A Members in the partnership or corporation to which he desires to be transferred. If there be no such Broker A Member in the latter partnership or corporation, or if the Broker B Member shall establish business in his own name, his membership as Broker B Member shall terminate forthwith, but he may apply to be transferred to Broker A Membership, in which case he shall pay the initiation fee of the class to which he is transferred.

(c) Broker C: A Real Estate Broker affiliated with a Broker A or Management A Member but not classified by such Broker A or Management A Member as a Senior Partner or Senior Officer of the corporation shall be eligible for Broker C Membership. There shall also be eligible to this class of membership salespersons who have been licensed as such for a period of not less than three years.

Article IV Fees and Dues

Section 1.

Brokerage Division: The initiation fee for members of the Brokerage Division shall be as follows:

Broker A Member $150

(b) No initiation fee shall be required in the case of a transfer of membership from one class to another where an initiation fee has been paid in the former class except that in the case of transfer of membership from one class which requires no initiation fee to another which requires an initiation fee or a greater initiation fee than that paid for the original class of membership, the member making the transfer shall pay the initiation fee or the difference in initiation fee as the case may be.

Section 2. Dues

Commercial Division: The annual dues for members of the Commercial Brokerage Division shall be as follows:

	REBNY Dues
Broker A Member:	$1,320
Broker B Member:	$1,320
Broker C Member:	$690

Residential Division: Members of the Residential Division's REBNY Listing Service (RLS) pay annual dues as follows:

	REBNY Dues	RLS Fee	Total Dues
Broker A Member:	$1,100	$550	$1,650
Broker B Member:	$1,100	$150	$1,250
Broker C Member:	$425	$125	$550

Section 3. The Annual Dues of all members shall be payable annually in advance on January 1st. Dues paid are not refundable.
