Article II Membership

Section 2.

Commercial and Residential Brokerage Divisions: Membership in the Commercial and Residential Brokerage Divisions shall be divided into classes as follows:

(g) Salesperson: Every salesperson in good standing, who holds a salespersons license pursuant to New York Real Property Law Article 12-A employed by a Broker A Member, whose application is endorsed by his employer or employing firm, shall apply for election as a Salesperson Member and if elected shall pay the dues prescribed for a Salesperson Member. In any case, the employing firm shall be responsible for the payment of the dues. If during the course of the year for which said dues have been paid the employment shall end, such employing firm, subject to the provisions hereof, shall be entitled to have a new salesperson employee elected to membership without payment of additional dues for the balance of such year.
